SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Joint Resolution 24 proposes to amend Article 4, Section 6 of the New Mexico Constitution to allow consideration of bills vetoed by the governor in a regular session during a special session.

Significant Issues

The constitution currently does not provide for consideration during special sessions of bills vetoed by the governor that passed during a regular session.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

If passed, this question would appear on the ballot in the November 2002 general election. The Secretary of State reports it costs $30.0 to place an item on the ballot for advertising and printing. Included in the cost is: (1) the publishing of constitutional amendments in English and Spanish for four consecutive weeks in one newspaper in each county of the state; (2) the oral translation and radio broadcast into the Native American languages of Tewa, Tiwa, Towa, Keres, Zuni, Mescalero Apache, Jicarilla Apache and Navajo; and (3) the printing of amendments booklets in English and Spanish (including Spanish language translation cost) and distribution to all county clerks (100,000 booklets were printed for 2000 general election). Therefore, there would be a nonrecurring cost to the general fund of $30.0 in FY03. This legislation does not include an appropriation needed to fund these costs.
